SPIRIT CREATIONS HOSTING THANKFUL THURSDAY STARTING IN NOVEMBER

Owner Samatha Spencer is Thankful to the Community and Wants to Give Back

MIDLAND, TX, November 3, 2020 -- Locally owned Spirit Creations is kicking off the Thanksgiving season with an opportunity to shop unique items and support local nonprofits.

In a statement to the West Texas Food Bank, Spencer said, "this year has been tough for everyone in so many ways. My husband Ben and I have faced our most difficult year of business and are so thankful for all of the support we have been shown. We wanted a way to give back during this crazy time. We and many of our friends are involved with local nonprofits and we see how much they are hurting to continue to serve the community around us. The idea for Thankful Thursdays came originally from brainstorming pop ups but we decided to turn it into a way to highlight the wonderful organizations around us and make a time of giving. It was intended to be just for November and we had a difficult time narrowing down our list so we are rolling it over into December, too. Every Thursday we will have special shopping hours from 5pm to 7pm and 10% of all sales will go directly to the nonprofit being hosted. It's a way for us to join with the community to give back to the nonprofit organizations that give so much."

In addition to the special shopping hours, Spirit Creations will donate 10% of your sale when you mention the West Texas Food Bank for the whole shopping day of November 5th. Shoppers are also encouraged to take advantage of "video personal shopping!" Contact the store for details.

The West Texas Food Bank will be the first nonprofit highlighted for Thankful Thursday at Spirit Creations, located next door to Murray's Deli in the Imperial shopping center in Midland -- 3211 W. Wadley Ave, #23, Midland, TX 79705.

Other local vendors, like Tall City Brewery, will be showing their support with product samples.

"We at the Food Bank are so thankful for the partnerships we have throughout the 19 counties we serve, and for the willingness of our community to step up and help their own," said Libby Campbell, Executive Director of the West Texas Food Bank. "Spirit Creations is such a fun and unique shop in Midland, and what a great opportunity to find a few early Christmas gifts and support the Food Bank!"
